

Professor Robert Gatter

Saint Louis University School of Law
Center for Health Law Studies
100 N. Tucker Blvd.
St. Louis MO 63101
robert.gatter@slu.edu
(314) 977-3355

Articles and Essays

Reviving Focused Scrutiny in the Constitutional Review of Public Health Measures, __ Wash. U. J. L. & Pol’y __ (2020) (forthcoming invited symposium article)

Smoke Screens: An Initial Analysis of the Coronavirus Lawsuits in the United States against China and the World Health Organization, Protego Press, April 25, 2020 (co-authored with Ana Santos Rutschman), available at proteGOPress.com

Op-Eds and Bog Posts

From Misinformation to Hidden Economic Agendas: The Coronavirus Lawsuit Against China, THE FINREG BLOG: COMMENTARY BY FACULTY AND AFFILIATES OF THE DUKE LAW GLOBAL FINANCIAL MARKETS CENTER, May 7, 2020 (co-authored with Ana Santos Rutschman), available at sites.duke.edu/thefinregblog

Lawsuits as Conduits for Misinformation During COVID-19, BILL OF HEALTH, April 30, 2020 (blog post co-authored with Ana Santos Rutschman), available at blog.petrieflom.law.harvard.edu

Require Court Orders for All Quarantines, op-

St. Louis Public Radio News, April 17, 2020 (“African Americans More Likely To Contract Coronavirus In St. Louis County”)

St. Louis Public Radio program St. Louis On the Air (“We Want To Have People On The Record’: SLU Pandemic Researcher On Quarantine Procedure”) April 7, 2020.

Quoted in:

BELLEVILLE NEWS DEMOCRAT, April 6, 2020 (“Why aren’t southwestern Illinois officials releasing more about coronavirus patients?” by Lexi Cortes)

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH, October 8, 2019 (“Francis Howell School District sues Juul e-cigarette company, citing harm to students” by Blythe Bernhard)

Community and Academic Service:

Covid-19 Pandemic Task Force Member, St Louis County, Missouri, Appointed March 10, 2020

Peer reviewer for Covid-19 manuscript, JOURNAL OF LAW AND THE BIOSCIENCES, April 2020

Preventing Pandemics, WYDOWN MIDDLE SCHOOL, 6th Grade Social Studies with Ms. Sarah Miller, online webinar, May 5, 2020

Medical and Legal Ethics in the Age of Covid, PROFESSIONAL SOCIETY OF THE JEWISH FEDERATION OF ST. LOUIS, Zoom panel presentation, April 30, 2020